Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause Why Counterclaim Should Not Be Dismissed for Failure to Prosecute

Absent a showing of good cause, an action must be dismissed without prejudice if the summons and complaint are not served on a defendant within 90 days after the complaint is filed. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). Generally, a defendant must answer the complaint within 21 days after service, or 60 days if the defendant is the United States. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a). In addition, “any required response to an amended pleading must be made within the time remaining to respond to the original pleading or within 14 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever is later.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(3). Finally, pursuant to the Court’s Civil Standing Order, “motions for default judgment shall be filed no later than 14 days after the later of (1) entry of default against the last remaining defendant, or (2) resolution of all claims against all defendants who have not defaulted.” Civil Standing Order at 10.

In the present case, it appears that one or more of these time periods has not been met as to one or more counter defendant(s). Specifically:

- ☐ Proof of service of the summons and complaint
- ☒ Answer by the counter defendants
- ☐ Motion for default judgment set for hearing in accordance with the Local Rules and the Court’s Civil Standing Order

Accordingly, the Court, on its own motion, orders Counter Claimant to show cause in writing no later than seven days from the date of this Order why the Counterclaim should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution as to those defendant(s).

It is Counter Claimant's responsibility to respond promptly to all Orders and to prosecute the action diligently, including filing proofs of service and stipulations extending time to respond. All stipulations affecting the progress of the case must be approved by this Court. See L.R. 7-1.

No oral argument of this matter will be heard unless ordered by the Court. The Order will stand submitted upon the filing of a written response.

Counter Claimant(s) are expressly warned that failure to timely file a response to this Order will result in this action being dismissed without prejudice as to one or more defendant(s) for failure to prosecute and comply with court orders. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
